

Announcements

- Church school today: Our monthly classes will meet during the fellowship meal time after Liturgy today. Kids should get their food first and meet in the upper room to begin with prayer. Grades K-3 (and younger, with parent present) will stay in the upper room and older children (grades 4 and up) will move upstairs to the church after eating. Questions? Please chat with Fr. Kirill about your child's class and spiritual growth.
- Wednesday night seminar: This Wednesday, February 7, Vespers at 6 pm will be followed by a seminar: Great Lent 101. Let's get ready for this "tithe of the year!"
- Lenten Retreat: Mark your calendars! On Saturday, March 10, we will welcome His Eminence, Archbishop Michael of New York as our speaker.

Sunday of the Prodigal Son.*Afterfeast of the Meeting of the Lord in the Temple. Tone 2*Today's Epistle1 Cor. 6:12-20*

Brethren: "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are expedient. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be enslaved by anything. "Food for the belly, and the belly for food." And God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. Now God has raised up the Lord and will also raise us up by His power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a harlot? God forbid! Do you not know that he who joins himself to a harlot becomes one body with her? "For the two," it says, "shall be one flesh." But he who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with Him. Flee immorality. Every other sin which a man commits is outside the body, but the immoral man sins against his own body. Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God? You are not your own; you were bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body.

Today's GospelLuke 15:11-32*

The Lord said this parable: A certain man had two sons: And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry: For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing. And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him. And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.
