

Announcements

- Church School. Today, our elementary-age students will meet for their special monthly church school session.
- Gratitude. Thank you for your support of Fr. Kwame Ayete Labi and the work he is doing to train up leaders for the Orthodox Church in Ghana. If you did not have a chance to make a contribution last Sunday, we will continue the collection today.
- Next Sunday. Next Sunday, June 10, we will be joined by Monk Cosmas from St. John Monastery in Manton, CA. After the liturgy and fellowship meal, Fr. Cosmas will share a presentation on monasticism. We look forward to hearing from him!
- 150th Celebration. I would like to make sure that you have our 150th Anniversary celebration noted in your planners and heart. On the eve of this feast, Friday October 19, we will sing Vespers at 6:00 PM followed by a reception. On Saturday, October 20, we will celebrate the Divine Liturgy with His Beatitude, our Metropolitan Tikhon at 9:30. Following the Liturgy, we will all go to McCormick's in Ghirardelli Square for a festive meal. Formal invitations coming soon – but please consider this an early but earnest invitation!

Today's Epistle

Hebrews 11:33-12:2

Today's Gospel

Matthew 10:32-33, 37-38, 19:27-30

1st Sunday after PentecostSunday of All Saints*Tone 8*Today's EpistleHebrews 11:33-12:2*

Brethren, by faith all the saints conquered kingdoms, wrought justice, received promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became valiant in battle, put foreign armies to flight. Women received their dead raised back to life. Others were tortured, refusing to accept release, that they might obtain a better resurrection. Others suffered mocking and scourging, yes, even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, they were tempted, they were put to death by the sword. They went about in sheepskins and goatskins, destitute, afflicted, ill-treated – of whom the world was not worthy – they wandered over deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. And all these, though they had been approved by the testimony of faith, did not receive what was promised, for God had something better in view for us, that without us they should not be made perfect.

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every encumbrance and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith,

Today's Gospel*Matthew 10:32-33, 37-38, 19:27-30*

Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is no worthy of me.

Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all and followed thee; what shall we have therefore? And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life. But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

The Apostles' Fast

The Apostles' Fast—which begins the day after All Saints—is the oldest fast and the first one kept by the Christian Church. The Book of Acts records that the Holy Spirit spoke to Apostles: "As they ministered to the Lord and fasted the Holy Spirit said: 'Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.' And when they fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away" (Acts 13:2-3). The Apostles' Fast continues until the Feast of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul on June 29.
