

Announcements

- Welcome Guests and Visitors. We are delighted to have you join us at our service today in worshipping the Holy Trinity. It is a special joy to have you with us on our annual parish feast day. It is an honor to have our Archbishop Benjamin presiding today and all of the guest clergy celebrating with us.

Please take a moment after the service to introduce yourself to our pastor, Father Kirill. You are cordially invited to join us for the festal luncheon after the service. We would love to greet you and answer any questions.

- Alleluia! We wish every blessing from the Lord to the Sims family, who were all baptized on Saturday. Please share your congratulations with them: Christopher, Lisa (in baptism, Elizabeth), Pretty (Joanna), and Strong (Photini). Many years!
- Next Weekend. Fr. Kirill will be travelling next weekend for the baptism of his new niece Mia (in baptism, Maria), the daughter of Masha. Please welcome Fr. Djurica Gordic on Saturday evening and Fr. Ian MacKinnon on Sunday morning.
- St. Eugene's Summer Camp. Late registration for our diocesan camp closes this week (June 21). Camp this year is July 7-13. Please speak with Fr. Kirill for more information. Registration is online: www.steugenecamp.org.

8th Sunday of Pascha*Day of the Holy Trinity. Pentecost.*Parish Feast Day of Holy Trinity*Cathedral, San Francisco*Apostolic Reading

Acts 2:1-11

In those days, while the day of Pentecost was running its course, they were all together in one place, when suddenly there came from heaven a noise like the rush of a mighty wind, which filled the whole house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them tongues like flames of fire, dispersed among them and resting on each one. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them power of utterance.

Now there were staying at Jerusalem devout Jews from every nation under heaven; and at this sound the multitude came together, all bewildered because each heard them speaking in his own language. They were all amazed and marvelled, saying, "Behold, are not these men who are speaking all Galileans? How is it then that we hear them, each of us in his own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites; inhabitants of Mesopotamia, of Judæa and Cappadocia, of Pontus and Asia, of Phrygia and Pamphylia, of Egypt and the districts of Libya around Cyrene; visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs, we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God."

Today's Gospel

John 7:37-52, 8:12

In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet. Others said, This is the Christ. But some said,

Shall Christ come out of Galilee? Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was? So there was a division among the people because of him. And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him? The officers answered, Never man spake like this man. Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived? Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him? But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed. Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,) Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth? They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

The Last Day, that Great Day...

The feast of Pentecost is the completion of all that Christ accomplished. Christ taught about the Kingdom of God, and here it is, now opened! Christ promised that the Spirit of God would reveal the truth, and now this is fulfilled. The world, history, life, time, are all illumined with the final, transcendent light—all are filled with ultimate meaning. The last and great day of the Lord has begun!
