

Announcements

- Welcome Guests and Visitors. Whether you are searching for a new church or just visiting, we welcome you and hope your experience at the Divine Liturgy is edifying and spiritually nourishing. If you have a prayer request, are looking for more information about the Orthodox Christian faith, would like to join the parish, or would like to speak with Fr Kirill, we invite you to fill out a visitor information card and leave it at the candle desk or send an e-mail. Please join us for lunch after the service. We would love to greet you and answer any questions.
- Church School. A special longer church school is held after liturgy on a monthly basis in three sections: approximately ages 3-5, elementary ages, and middle/high-school kids. Today's church school will focus on the life of our missionary father St. Innocent of Alaska.
- Youth Equipped to Serve (YES) day trip. A daylong service project for Orthodox high school and college youth will be held in San Francisco Saturday, Nov 9. Participants engage with the poverty of their city and are trained to grow into servant leaders in their own communities. Participants will begin their day here at Holy Trinity. More information at yesnorthamerica.org or on the bulletin board.
- Fundraising Banquet for IOCC. In support of the global humanitarian work of International Orthodox Christian Charities, the 27th annual "Remembering Home" Banquet will be held on Sunday, Nov 10, in Novato in the evening. Details at iocc.org and on the bulletin board.

Brethren: As workers together with Him, we beseech you also not to receive the grace of God in vain. For He says, "I have heard thee in an acceptable time, and in the day of salvation have I helped thee." Behold, now is the acceptable time. Behold, now is the day of salvation. We give no offense to anyone, that our ministry may not be blamed. But as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way, in much patience, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in sleepless nights, in fastings, by purity, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by love unfeigned, by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, in honor and dishonor, in evil report and good report, as deceivers and yet true, as unknown and yet well known, as dying and, behold, we live, as chastened and not killed, as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing, as poor, yet making many rich, as having nothing, yet possessing all things.

Hebrews 7:26-8:2

Brethren: it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, set apart from sinners, exalted above the heavens. He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people. He did this once for all when He offered up Himself. For the Law appoints men in their weakness as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came after the Law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect for ever.

Now the main point in what we are saying is this. We have such a high priest, who has taken His seat at the right hand of the throne of Majesty in the heavens, a minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which is set up not by man but by the Lord.

Today's Gospel Readings*Luke 7:11-16*

At that time, Jesus went into a city called Nain; and many of His disciples went with Him, and a large crowd. And when He came near the gate of the city, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother; and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the city was with her. When the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." Then He came and touched the open coffin, and those who carried him stood still. And He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." So he who was dead sat up and began to speak. And He presented him to his mother. Then fear came upon all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has risen up among us"; and, "God has visited His people."

John 10:9-16

The Lord said to the Jews that came to him: I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture. The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.

"I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives His life for the sheep. But a hireling, he who is not the shepherd, one who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees; and the wolf catches the sheep and scatters them. The hireling flees because he is a hireling and does not care about the sheep. I am the good shepherd; and I know My sheep, and am known by My own. As the Father knows Me, even so I know the Father; and I lay down My life for the sheep. And other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they will hear My voice; and there will be one flock and one shepherd.
