Today's Epistle

Romans 6:18-23

Brethren: Having been set free from sin, you have become the slaves of righteousness. I speak in the manner of men, because of your natural limitations. For as you yielded your members as slaves of uncleanness and iniquity unto iniquity, so now yield your members as slaves of righteousness unto holiness.

For when you were the servants of sin, you were free from righteousness. But what fruit had you then from those things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. But now, being made free from sin, and having become servants of God, you have your fruit unto holiness and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Today's Gospel

Matthew 8:5-13

At that time, when Jesus had entered Capernaum, a centurion came to Him, pleading with Him, saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, dreadfully tormented." And Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him." The centurion answered and said, "Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof. But only speak a word, and my servant will be healed. For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." When Jesus heard it, He marveled, and said to those who followed, "Assuredly, I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel! And I say to you that many will come from east and west, and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. But the sons of the kingdom will be cast out into outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way; and as you have believed, so let it be done for you." And his servant was healed that same hour.
