

Announcements

- Welcome Guests and Visitors. We are delighted to have you with us at our service today worshipping the Risen Lord. You are cordially invited to join us for coffee after the service. We would love to greet you and answer any questions.
- Blood Drive. Save the Date - Sunday, May 23, 11:30 am - 3:30 pm. We are hosting a blood drive in our Library (center where we usually have coffee). To make an appointment visit vitalant.org and click donate, use sponsor code: Give Life HTC. Details will follow via email. If you have any questions please reach out to Deanna or Steve Micros.
- Looking Ahead. The monthly calendar for May is now available. Please note that our Parish Feast Day – Pentecost – is Saturday evening, June 19, and Sunday morning, June 20! Attendance at our parish feast day is an expectation and joy!
- Pascha Continues. Easter is the real encounter with Him whom our hearts long ago knew and encountered as the life and light of all light. Pascha testifies that Christ is alive and with us, and that we are alive in Him. We celebrate the Resurrection every Sunday but in a particular way for forty days following Pascha. Our energy “ebbs and flows”, of course, but I look forward to continuing the celebration with you as May and June unfold.

Today's Apostolic Reading

Acts 5:12-20

In those days, many signs and wonders were done among the people by the hands of the Apostles. And with one accord they all would meet in Solomon's portico; but of the rest, no one dared to associate with them, yet the people held them in high honor. And the multitude of men and women who believed in the Lord increased still more, so that they even carried the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and pallets, that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might fall on some of them. And there came also multitudes from the towns near Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those afflicted with unclean spirits, and they were all healed.

But the high priest rose up and all who were with him, that is, the party of the Sadducees, and being filled with jealousy seized the Apostles and put them in the common prison. But during the night the angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out and said, "Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this Life."

Gospel Reading

John 20:19-31

On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Now Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and place my finger in the mark of the nails, and place my hand in his side, I will not believe."

Eight days later, his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. The doors were shut, but Jesus came and stood among them, and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side; do not be faithless, but believing." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.
