

Announcements

- Welcome Guests and Visitors. We are delighted to have you join us at our service today in worshipping the Holy Trinity. You are cordially invited to join us for coffee and fellowship after the service!
- Don't Miss! We are planning our Annual Lenten Retreat on Saturday April 2. Fr. Bogdan Bucur, Ph.D., professor of patristics at St. Vladimir's Seminary, will help us reignite our understanding, preparation, and full participation in the great mystery of the Passover—the Pascha—of our great Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! Please grab a flier and register today.
- Special Collections. We are collecting for our annual appeal for missions this weekend and next. We here at Holy Trinity are blessed by the generosity of our ancestors in the faith who bequeathed to us a property and a beautiful temple where we are able to praise and thank the true God. Let's help a mission of our diocese work for the same!
- Annunciation. The important feast of the Annunciation is the only one that interrupts the weekdays of Lent with the joy of the full Divine Liturgy, which will be celebrated on Friday the 25th at 6:00 pm. On Thursday, the Festal Vigil will inaugurate the feast. And this weekend we venerate the Precious Cross!

Today's Epistle
Hebrews 1:10-2:3
Today's Gospel
Mark 2:1-12

2nd Sunday of Great Lent.
St. Gregory Palamas.
Tone 6.

Today's Epistle

Heb. 1:10-2:3

"Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the works of Thy hands. They shall perish, but Thou remainest. And they shall all wax old, as does a garment. And as a vesture shalt Thou fold them up, and they shall be changed. But Thou art the same, and Thy years shall not fail."

But to which of the angels said He at any time, "Sit at My right hand, until I make Thine enemies Thy footstool"? Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for the sake of those who shall inherit salvation?

Therefore we ought to give more earnest heed to what we have heard, lest at any time we drift away. For if the word spoken by angels proved to be valid, and every transgression and disobedience received a just retribution, how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation?

Today's Gospel

Mark 2:1-12

At that time, Jesus entered Capernaum, and it was heard that He was in the house. Immediately many gathered together, so that there was no longer room to receive them, not even near the door. And He preached the word to them. Then they came to Him, bringing a paralytic who was carried by four men. And when they could not come near Him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. So when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying.

When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven you."

And some of the scribes were sitting there and reasoning in their hearts, "Why does this Man speak blasphemies like this? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

But immediately, when Jesus perceived in His spirit that they reasoned thus within themselves, He said to them, "Why do you reason about these things in your hearts? Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Arise, take up your bed and walk'? But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins"—He said to the paralytic, "I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house." Immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went out in the presence of them all, so that all were amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

Knowing God – Really!

In his Triads, St. Gregory Palamas (1296–1359) presents the Orthodox Dogmatic basis for ascetical life and "Hesychasm" – a concept that was foreign to influential Latin theology and scholasticism. St. Gregory Palamas interpreted the experience of the Church by presenting logical arguments, based on the Scripture and the writings of the Fathers. Addressing the question of how it is possible for humans to have – in this life! – knowledge of a transcendent and unknowable God, he drew a distinction between knowing God in His essence, or nature, and knowing God in His energies, actions, or the means by which He acts.

To elaborate, he made a comparison between God and the sun. The sun has its rays, God has His energies (among them, grace and light). By His energies, God creates, sustains, and governs the universe. By His energies, He transforms creation and deifies it, that is, He fills the new creation with His energies as water fills a sponge. These actions or energies of God are the true revelation of God Himself to humanity. So God is incomprehensible and unknowable in His nature or essence, but knowable in His energies. It is through His actions out of His love to the whole creation that God enters into a direct and immediate relationship with humans, a personal confrontation between creature and Creator.
