

Announcements

- Pascha this year: We are anticipating with hope and faith a full celebration of the Lord's Pascha — Easter — this coming Sunday, April 24, with the services beginning at 11:30 PM on Holy Saturday night, April 23. With all the preparation needed, I entreat you to carefully read e-mail announcements and to sign up to help.
- Health: We ask that everyone do a quick home test for Covid before the great Paschal celebration; if you need a test kit, please pick one up from the candle counter.
- Parking this week: The Sisters who live and teach at St. Brigid School have offered their parking for our use during Holy Week. The lot on Broadway between Van Ness and Franklin will be open for all services this week.

Today's Epistle

Philippians 4:4-9

Brethren: Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Let your moderation be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, shall keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, do. And the God of peace shall be with you.

Today's Gospel

John 12:1-18

Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was who had been dead, whom He had raised from the dead. There they made Him a supper; and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with Him. Then Mary took a pound of very costly oil of spikenard, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.

But one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who would betray Him, said, "Why was this fragrant oil not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?" This he said, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the money box; and he used to take what was put in it.

But Jesus said, "Let her alone; she has kept this for the day of My burial. For the poor you have with you always, but Me you do not have always."

Now a great many of the Jews knew that He was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might also see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. But the chief priests plotted to put Lazarus to death also, because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

The next day a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, and cried out:

"Hosanna!

'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!

The King of Israel!"

Then Jesus, when He had found a young donkey, sat on it; as it is written:

"Fear not, daughter of Zion;

Behold, your King is coming,

Sitting on a donkey's colt."

His disciples did not understand these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about Him and that they had done these things to Him.

Therefore the people, who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of his tomb and raised him from the dead, bore witness. For this reason the people also met Him, because they heard that He had done this sign.

Thank You!

Welcome guests and visitors!

Please join us for coffee and lunch after the Divine Liturgy. We look forward to saying hello.

Thanks to Katherine S. and Frank M. for organizing today's fellowship meal. Our appreciation to Matushka Sophia and Katherine S. for preparing a festive Lazarus Saturday reception, too!

We give glory to God for the baptisms of Christopher Wipfli and Peter Cloth yesterday! We also welcomed Scott Klaus — who is taking the name of St. John of San Francisco — as a catechumen.

There's a lot to be done in the coming days — what a blessing — may God strengthen us all!
